LOST!

On Sunday last, somewhere on the road between this Village and Kalamazoo, a Black Silk Dolman trimmed with Black Fur. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving the same at the Northern office. 1431f

Local Department.

From this time until after Nov. 30th, turkeys will roost high.

E. O. Briggs, Esq., will build a new office, opposite his stove mill.

Judge A. J. Smith, of Cass and Berrien circuit, has taken to himself, a wife.

E. J. House, formerly a merchant in this village, was buried at Kalamazoo last Friday.

One of Hank's convicts at the jail, stole the Prosecuting Attorney's gloves, the other day.

John Haling says he will be ready next week to put regular trains on the road from Lawton to Hartford. Good enough.

Prof. A. H. Herron, of this place, has been appointed to the chair of astronomy, in the Southern Michigan Normal School.

The genial countenance of our old friend, Lou Melchor, was seen on our streets for a few days this week. Lou, has lots of friends here.

Senator elect, Hon. Chas. J. Monroe, goes to the next Legislature with a majority of 1,736 from his district. A pretty good run, Charley.

The Durkee boys, of Antwerp, on Monday morning last, captured a fine white owl, measuring five feet from tip to tip. He was a beauty.

Be sure and observe the new adv. of Matthews, the Stationer. He is determined no one shall get the start of him in the line of Holiday goods.

Our northern hunters had their captured beaver on exhibition last Monday. When those chaps don't get any game, it is a poor time for hunting.

We call our readers attention to the advertisement of Steketee's Pin Worm Destroyer, found in another column. The medicine is very highly recommended.

The schools of this town and of Hartford, were dismissed on Thursday last week, and the teachers attended the funeral of Mrs. Bradt, who was buried on that day.

Cass county elected the entire Democratic county ticket, except the two Circuit Court Commissioners. The majority against Hon. J. C. Burrows, in that county, was 71.

F. C. Bartholomew, Esq., of Connecticut, is visiting at C. A. Harrison's. Mr. B. makes an annual pilgrimage to this place, and we shall soon consider him almost a Michigander.

Cole Rawson called at our house when we were absent, the always does and left a fine piece of one of those deer he captured up north. Thanks for the venison if not for the call.

Column Engle, Cole Rawson and Will Thayer returned from their hunting trip, on Friday last. They count up 13 deer and one beaver, as trophies of their skill. Pretty fair success.

Miss Mamie Rowland will be present, as heretofore, at the office of C. A. Harrison, Esq., in the Court House, on Monday, Dec. 4th, for the purpose of filling vouchers for pensioners.

A new ten pound boy put in an appearance at the residence of F. E. Stevens, Esq., on Friday last, and Ed. is happy. He says the first words the boy spoke were "Hurrah for New York."

Our typo, he of the blonde mustache, has been rusticated in Chicago a few days.—Rumor says he made his first appearance in front of the foot-lights, on Boiler Ave. A t-r-e-m-e-n-d-o-u-s effect.

Married, Nov. 15th, 1882, Mr. Robert L. Jones, of Lawton, Mich., to Miss Sarah L. Van Ness, of Petoskey, Mich. After a visit to Mt. Pleasant for a few weeks, the happy couple will return to their home at Kalamazoo.

Fenner, our foreman, went to Kalamazoo on Friday last to attend the Demo-Greenback ratification meeting there. We saw nothing of him until Monday morning. We haven't the least idea what caused him to stay so long.

Mrs. Hannah Failing, of Almena, had a quilting on Thursday last week, to which all the old ladies of her acquaintance were invited. They had an excellent time, such as only elderly ladies can have, when they have a social gathering.

J. H. Anderson, of Hartford, started on Monday last, to go to Springfield, Mass., to look after the estate of his grandfather, at that place, but being advised by his attorney that it would not be necessary for him to go, he abandoned the trip.

Mrs. Martin Erkenbeck is recovering from quite a serious illness.

Dr. B. S. Palmer, successor of Dr. Ward, was in town over Sunday.

Elmer and Jennie Darling, of Hillsdale, are spending a short vacation at home.

Prof. C. E. Hutchins has gone to Stanton, Montcalm county, to hold a musical institute.

Thanksgiving services will be held in the M. E. church on Thursday, Nov. 30th, at 10:30 a. m.

The Kalamazoo Telegraph calls him the Hon. E. A. Blackman. Is that because he was once a defeated candidate for the Legislature?

Prof. Harrington and Miss Etta Hopping were in town over Sunday. They have gone to Wisconsin to rejoin Leslie's chorus concert company.

Prof. Fred Jacobs, who has been in the musical convention business, over in Indiana, is in town. He is talking of holding a convention at Decatur.

A business meeting of the Alumni will be held at Miss Mary Bryar's on Tuesday, Nov. 28th, at 7 o'clock p. m. All members are requested to be present.

Mr. Fred Barry, recently prescription clerk in Forsyth & Bryar's, left Wednesday morning for Davenport, Iowa, where he will engage in drug business.

Mrs. Wilkins, mother of Mrs. Chas. Mosier, arrived home on Saturday last from the State of New York, where she has been enjoying a pleasant visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. Chas. Ritson, of Waverly, has invented a patent buggy which he thinks is going to be a fine thing. Mr. E. H. Haynes will manufacture them at the Randall foundry in this town.

Miss Mattie Blackman, who has been stopping at Marquette, came home last Tuesday, on account of the illness of her mother. We are sorry to state that Mrs. Blackman remains very ill.

Married at the residence of the bride's mother, in Paw Paw township, by Rev. H. W. Harvey, on Thursday, Nov. 23, 1882, Miss Carrie Lane, of Paw Paw, to Thos. Dindman, of Chicago.

P. B. Emery, Esq., went to Illinois a few days ago and brought back with him a bay Cleveland stallion, a very fine rangy fellow. These horses are said to be the finest coach horses in the world.

Wilber Babcock has been down near Owosso, in this State, looking over Jerome Eddy and some other high steppers. Mr. B. talks of bringing a Royal George Messenger stallion here in the spring.

Died, in Washington, D. C., on Tuesday, Nov. 14th, after a short illness, of paralysis, Mrs. Sabrina A. Taylor, aged 68 years. Mrs. Taylor was a sister of Robert Orr, Samuel Orr, sen., and Mrs. Dr. Russell of this village.

We are in receipt of a fine package of flower bulbs from the well known seedsmen, Hiram Sibley & Co. Any one desiring any thing in their line, will meet with prompt attention by addressing them at 200 & 205 Randolph St., Chicago, Ill.

Mr. Fred E. Mank, who has lately returned from Reynolds, Grand Forks county, Dak., brought to our office, one day last week, some potatoes raised by him in that place. They were as fine potatoes as we ever saw. Evidently Dakota soil produces good vegetables.

Greenbacker Blackman, brother of S. H. Blackman, who was reported elected as Representative from the second district of Allegan county, was beaten by Goodman, Republican, by a majority of 56 votes. He leads Representative Warren from this district just one vote.

If any one fails to receive his NORTHERNER at any time between this and the first of January, 1883, let him stop and think whether he has not been notified of the amount of his arrearage on subscription and neglected to respond. We must keep our subscription list on a basis of prompt payment.

The Lawrence Times evidently intends to have its readers posted on the result of the elections, and so gives almost three columns of election news on its first page, which is duplicated on its second page. Be careful boys what you put on the home side. We fear that the "patent plates," and "ready prints" will not work well together. They are too liable to conflict.

A magnificent auroral display, perhaps the most brilliant that has appeared for years, was seen on Sunday night last. It was visible in the evening, but presented the finest appearance about two o'clock a. m., when the entire northern half of the heavens was brilliantly illuminated with a bright and vivid light of various hues. This display of celestial pyrotechnics continued until quenched by the stronger light of approaching day.

Mrs. O. H. P. Sheldon is spending a few days, in Dowagiac, with her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Stocking.

The fighting editor of the NORTHERNER is now suffering with a lame arm. In fact he is now hors de combat.

Will C. Mosier (Billy the Kid) went to Chicago last Monday to attend the Fat Cattle Show and see the "Elephant."

We publish elsewhere the prospectus of the Detroit Post and Tribune. That paper takes rank as one of the leading papers of the country. It is complete in every department. No pains are spared by its managers to render it not only acceptable, but a necessity to all classes of community. Politically it is staunchly Republican, and has struck strong blows in favor of that party. The price of the weekly has been reduced to one dollar per year, and often the information contained in a single issue is worth more than a year's subscription.

Died, in this village, on Friday, Nov. 17th, 1882, Chandler Richards, Esq., aged 53 years, 7 months and 5 days. Mr. Richards was born in Norwich, Windsor county, Vermont, on the 12th day of March, 1829. He graduated at Dartmouth college, N. H., in 1855, and immediately commenced teaching at Haverhill, N. H., at which place he began his legal studies. In 1856 he became a professor in Kalamazoo college, Michigan, and was admitted to the bar in June 1857. In 1858 he removed to Paw Paw, Mich., where he has ever since resided, except for a period of about four years, when failing health demanded his withdrawal from the active practice of his profession, during which time he resided on his farm, one mile east of the village of Lawrence, in this county. Politically
